Oberon Investments Group PLC
("Oberon Investments" or the "Company")
New Appointments

Mayfair based Investment Management boutique Oberon Investments have announced the arrival of former Head of the WH Ireland London office, Mark Burtenshaw.

With over 18 years' experience within the Private Banking and Wealth Management industry, Mark was responsible for advising a large portfolio of private clients at WH Ireland. Mark operates across a range of institutional, high net worth individuals and families, trusts and charities in the UK and overseas, with a core focus of providing bespoke discretionary portfolio management, advisory and execution only brokerage.

Mark began his career at American Express Private Bank before moving to Morgan Stanley Private Wealth Management and then to Royal Bank of Canada Global Wealth Management.

Oberon CEO Simon McGivern added 'We are delighted that Oberon continues to attract talented and experienced managers such as Mark. We provide our investment professionals with a platform to give their clients the opportunity of top class investment performance and service'.

Oberon have also welcomed Adrian Rickett to the company as Group Head of Sales. Adrian started his career in the insurance industry where he ran the hedge fund desk at Howden. In 2006, he moved to Sussex Partners, a boutique alternative investment advisory business. In 2011, he co-founded ARM Capital which was set up in partnership with FRM. Adrian has extensive experience in capital raising for both traditional and alternative wealth managers as well as direct companies. Most recently, Adrian was a Principal at Conviction VC, a B2B SaaS investor.
